(a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2015, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of South Florida S.P.C.A. Inc. as of June 30, 2015, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2015

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

South Florida S.P.C.A. (Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals) (the Society) is a Florida not-for-profit organization established for the prevention and suppression of cruelty to animals. The Society strives to assure that the interests, physical needs, and well being of all animals are fully, effectively and humanely guaranteed by an aware and caring society. The Society provides animal health services including response and rescue, veterinary care and feeding services, amongst other for the sick or injured. The Society strives to educate the public on what is adequate care and humane treatment of any and all animals. The Society owns a ranch located in Homestead, Florida where animals are cared for upon rescue until adoption.

Basis of Accounting

The Society follows standards for accounting and financial reporting prescribed for not-for-profit organizations. The financial statements of the Society have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements of the Society have been prepared under the guidance of Financial Accounting Standards Board in its Accounting Standard Codification (ASC) No. 958, Not-for-Profit Entities. Under (ASC) No. 958, the Society reports its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets. Accordingly, the Society's net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows if applicable:

Unrestricted net assets – Net assets that are not subject to donor imposed stipulations.

Temporarily restricted net assets – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may, or will be, met by either actions of the Society and/or passage of time.

Permanently restricted net assets – Net assets permanently restricted by donor-imposed stipulations that may be maintained in perpetuity.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Society considers cash and all highly liquid investments available for current use with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. At times, balances may exceed federally insured limits.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. It is reasonably possible that these estimates will change in the near future. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

Membership Fees - Membership donations are recognized as income at the time of receipt.

Private Grants and Reimbursement Contracts – Private grants and reimbursement contract revenues received are recorded as income in the period designated by the grantor or agency or as earned by the Society, generally by incurring program related costs. Any amounts relating to subsequent fiscal periods are recorded as deferred revenue and amortized to income over the remaining grant period or as earned by the Society by fulfillment of expenditure provisions according to the grant and contract agreement.

Contributions - The Society accounts for contributions in accordance with the guidance of Financial Accounting Standards Board in its Accounting Standard Codification (ASC) No. 958, Not-for-Profit Entities, Accounting for Contributions Received and Contributions Made. Contributions can be comprised of the following:

Donations

Donations are recorded as revenue in the period they are received. Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions expire in the year in which the contributions are recognized. All other donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets depending on the nature of the restrictions. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are transferred to unrestricted net assets.

Promises to Give

Revenue is recognized when a donor makes a “promise to give” to the Society that is, in substance, unconditional. Long-term unconditional promises to give that are made in writing are classified as temporarily restricted until payment is received. When payment is received such payment is shown as net assets released from restrictions net of any new unconditional promises to give. The Society uses the allowance method to determine the estimated uncollectible promises receivable that are doubtful of collection. The Society had no promises to give recorded at June 30, 2015.

Goods and Services

Contributed goods are recorded as contributions at their estimated fair value at date of receipt. Contributed services are recognized as contributions at their estimated fair value, if the services (a) create or enhance non-financial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by the Society. Volunteers also provided services through-out the year that are not recognized as contributions in the financial statements since these are not susceptible to objective measurement or valuation. The Society had no contributed goods and services for the year ended June 30, 2015.

Fair Value Measurements

Accounting Standard Codification (ASC) No. 820, Fair Value Measurement and Disclosures, establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels: Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and have the highest priority; Level 2 inputs consist of observable inputs other than quoted prices for identical assets; and Level 3 inputs are significant unobservable inputs and have the lowest priority. The Society uses appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs that are significant unobservable inputs to measure the fair value.

At June 30, 2015 the carrying amount of cash and cash equivalents, contract receivable and accounts payable and accrued expenses approximates fair value based on the short maturity of those instruments. Borrowings are recognized initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Mortgage and note payables approximate fair value, based on current rates available for financing with similar maturities.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment, used in animal care facilities, are recorded at cost if purchased or if donated at the fair value at the date of donation less an allowance for depreciation. Normal repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred whereas significant improvements, which materially increase values or extend useful lives, are capitalized and depreciated over the remaining estimated useful lives of the related assets. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line methods over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. The estimated useful life of the building on the ranch property is 39 years, building improvements is 20 years and vehicles and equipment range in useful lives ranging from 3 to 5 years. Upon sale or retirement of depreciable assets, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts. Any gain or loss on the sale or retirement is recognized in current operations.

The Society reviews assets for impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate that the related carrying amount may not be recoverable. When required, impairment losses on assets to be held and used are recognized based on the fair value of the asset.

Functional Expense Allocation

The costs of providing various programs and activities are charged directly to each program for direct expenses incurred. Payroll expenses are allocated based on hours of time charged to the programs.

Income Taxes

The Society is a not-for-profit organization exempt from taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) except that unrelated business income, if any, is taxable. The Society had no unrelated business income during the year ended June 30, 2015.

As of June 30, 2015, the Society has no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. The society is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for a tax period in progress. Management believes it is no longer subject to examination for years prior to 2012.

Date of Management Review

Subsequent events have been evaluated through October 7, 2015, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued.
